Application Requirements

· Common Application at admission.usc.edu/commonapp. We do not require the Common Application's College Report.
· Official transcripts from any and all colleges attended, showing coursework completed through fall and winter terms.
· Final, official high school transcript with graduation date.
· Portfolio, résumé and/or additional writing samples if required by major. Performance majors may also require auditions.
· Recommendation letters for some majors. Please refer to your program of interest for more information.
· International students only: Visit admission.usc.edu/international for specific requirements and more information.

Merit Scholarships

USC offers a robust merit scholarship program. All transfer applicants who apply for admission by February 15 are considered for the USC Transfer Merit Scholarship. Learn more: admission.usc.edu/scholarships

Financial Aid

Unsure if you can afford a college education? USC might be more affordable than you think.

For an initial estimate of the aid you might receive, visit our MyinTuition Quick Cost Calculator at financialaid.usc.edu/npc.

USC is need-blind: Students are considered for admission without regard to their ability to pay.

Deadline to apply for need-based financial aid:

March 4
· Submit FAFSA: studentaid.gov
· Submit CSS Profile: cssprofile.collegeboard.org
· Apply for a Cal Grant: csac.ca.gov
